

Creature Feature Activity

Eastern box turtles come in a variety of natural colors that allow them to blend in with soil and leaf litter on the forest floor.

Blending in with your surroundings is called camouflage.

Their shells also have different color patterns and designs, making each turtle unique!

How will you color yours?

Salato Wildlife Education Center Salato@ky.gov FW.KY.GOV
1 Sportsman's Ln, Frankfort, KY 40601